(2) Please write a summary of less than 100 words to outline the most innovative and important arguments and core contents in your paper to attract readers.

→ We added the "core tip" less than 100 words as followings:

Over the past two decades, the incidence and prevalence of inflammatory bowel disease (IBD) have changed with a trend toward increasing across Asia, especially East Asia. This increasing trend in IBD epidemiology necessitates specific health care planning and education in Asia. To this end, we must gain a precise understanding of the distinctive clinical and therapeutic characteristics of Asian patients with IBD, compared to Caucasians patients with IBD. Accordingly, this review summarizes current knowledge of the phenotypic manifestations and management practices of patients with IBD, with a special focus on a comparison of Eastern and Western perspectives.

(3) Please provide all authors abbreviation names and manuscript title here. The abbreviation names should be the same as the copyright.

→ We added following sentence.

“Park SJ, Kim WH, Cheon JH. Clinical characteristics and treatment of inflammatory bowel disease: A comparison of Eastern and Western perspectives”

(4) Please add PubMed citation numbers and DOI citation to the reference list and list all authors.

Please revise throughout. The author should provide the first page of the paper without PMID and DOI.

PMID (<http://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/entrez/query.fcgi?db=PubMed>) DOI

(<http://www.crossref.org/SimpleTextQuery/>) (Please begin with DOI: 10.**)

For those references that have not been indexed by PubMed, a printed copy of the first page of the full reference should be submitted.

→ We revised all the reference lists and provided PMID and DOI in almost all references, as possible as we can. And we would like to send an e-mail to j.l.wang@wjgnet.com with the seven pdf files in some references (Ref. 8, 28, 40, 59, 68, 79, 102).

Unfortunately, in six references, we could find only PMID, not the DOI numbers or pdf files (Ref. 18, 19, 30, 37, 60, 71). But we are able to send the first pages of paper copies of these six references via fax later, if you want to receive them.

(5) Please provide the decomposable figure of Figures, whose parts are movable and can be edited. So please put the original picture as word or ppt or excel format so that I can edit them easily

→ We would like to attach the original excel format for figure 1 and figure 2 to edit them easily as you recommended. However, we cannot attach the excel format to the revision submission site. Therefore, we are going to send this excel format via the e-mail (j.l.wang@wjgnet.com).

3 References and typesetting were corrected.

Thank you again for publishing our manuscript in the World Journal of Gastroenterology.
