

Institutional animal care and use committee statement

All animal experiments were carried out in line with the internationally accepted norms and principles. For conducting animal experiments, the guidelines issued by the Institutional Animal Ethics Committee of Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Government of India was strictly followed (BAEC/15/18).

Ref - RB&HSD/2019/89325 10/5/19

Project No. : BAEC / ..15.. / ..18..

Progress Report Reply Form
42nd meeting, 3rd May 2019

Institutional Animal Ethics Committee
Bhabha Atomic Research Centre
Radiation Biology & Health Sciences Division

To Dharmendra Kumar Maurya
RB&HSD

(Chief Investigator's name and address to be filled in above)

1. Project Title: Therapeutic mitigation of radiation injury using human origin lectin

2. Chief Investigator's Name and Designation: Dharmendra Kumar Maurya

3. Division & Telephone No.

(For Office Use)

The Institutional Animal Ethics Committee of BARC (IAEC, BARC) in its 42nd meeting held on 3rd May 2019 reviewed the progress report / final report on the above mentioned Project No. BAEC/..15.. / ..18.. and

i) ~~did not approve continuation of experiments on~~ animal (comment of IAEC, BARC furnished below)

ii) approved continuation of experiments on 250 SWISS mice animal for the next six months/ one year w. e. f. 15th May, 2019 subject to following condition(s):

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Through:
Head RB&HSD
BARC

H. D. Sarma
10/5/19
(H. D. Sarma)
Member Secretary,
Institutional Animal Ethics Committee &
Head, Animal House Facility

Dr. Dharmendra K. Maurya
10/5/19