FIRST CERTIFICATE IN ENGLISH (FCE)

University of Cambridge ESOL (part of UCLES) provides examinations in English for speakers of other languages.

FCE is a general proficiency examination at Level B2 in the Council of Europe Common European Framework. It is at Level 1 in the UK National Qualifications Framework, as specified by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority (QCA).

FCE has widespread recognition in commerce and industry, e.g. for public contact or secretarial work in banking, airlines, catering, etc. It is also recognised as fulfilling English language entry requirements by many higher education institutions and corporate bodies across the world.

The examination has five papers: Reading, Writing, Use of English, Listening, Speaking.
Performance in FCE is indicated as follows:

- Grade A (Very good)
- Grade B (Good)
- Grade C (Pass)

Successful performance in FCE indicates that candidates can operate independently, with the capacity to achieve most goals and express themselves on a range of topics.

The Association of Language Testers in Europe (ALTE) has developed a framework which covers six levels of language proficiency aligned to the Council of Europe Common European Framework. Research carried out by ALTE has shown what language learners can typically do at each level.

The table below gives some examples at FCE level of typical general ability plus ability in each of the skill areas and in a range of contexts.

Typical abilities	Listening and Speaking	Reading and Writing
Overall general ability	CAN follow a talk on a familiar topic.	CAN scan texts for relevant information.
	CAN keep up a conversation on a fairly wide range of topics.	CAN make notes while someone is talking or write a letter including non-standard requests.
Social & Tourist	CAN ask for clarification and further explanation, and is likely to understand the answer.	CAN read the media for information quickly and with good understanding.
	CAN keep up a conversation on a fairly wide range of topics.	CAN express opinions and give reasons.
Work	CAN ask for factual information and understand the answer.	CAN understand the general meaning of non-routine letters and understand most of the content.
	CAN express her/his own opinion, and present arguments to a limited extent.	CAN write a simple report of a factual nature and begin to evaluate, advise etc.
Study	CAN answer predictable or factual questions.	CAN make simple notes that are of reasonable use for essay or revision purposes, capturing most important points.
	CAN check that all instructions are understood.	CAN present arguments, using a limited range of expression (vocabulary, grammatical structures).

Any alteration to this certificate renders it invalid and use of an altered certificate could constitute a criminal offence.

If there is any doubt about the details recorded on the certificate, contact the local Cambridge ESOL centre for advice on verification procedures.

A † symbol next to the candidate's grade indicates that the candidate was exempt from satisfying the full range of assessment objectives in the examination.
