

CERTIFICATE OF ENGLISH EDITING

To whom so ever it may concern

This is to certify that the manuscript titled 'Current Role of High Dose Vitamin C in Sepsis Management: A Concise Review', written by the authors, Deven Juneja, Prashant Nasa and Ravi Jain has been corrected for English language in terms of spelling, hyphenation, punctuation, numerals, abbreviation-capitalization, subject-verb agreement and tense-voice patterns. Further, the statements have been edited to improve the flow of research content. At the time of editing, neither the research content nor the authors' intentions were altered in any way, provided our editor's changes are accepted and further changes made to the paper are checked by our editor.

We wish the authors a successful career ahead.
