SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors wish to address to develop tool to assess inappropriate prescribing for a particular population with a specific disease that should be reflected in the topic. From topic one cannot identify-what the content would be. so the title needs modification and a crisp, clear and focussed topic should be prepared. Inappropriate prescriptions for elderly is very common not only in COVID but otherwise is also there; topic touches relevant aspect; However, it modification is needed. The first para of the article may also start focussing the issue that is addressed in the letter to editor. There must be text that elaborates and link with each other and the text with topic as well.
