

Yale SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

September 22nd, 2022

To the editors of the World Journal of Gastroenterology:

The authors of this manuscript are physicians in the United States and primary English language speakers. As the corresponding author, I have reviewed the manuscript for issues pertaining to content, grammar, and style. I can confirm that the revised version meets the language standards set forth by this journal and the scientific community.

All the best,
