Language Services Certificate

I, Vaibhav Sharma, hereby certify that I have provided language services to the manuscript titled "Primary Adrenal Ewing Sarcoma: A Systematic Review of the Literature" (No 00814037). As a native English-speaking specialist with extensive experience in language review and editing, I have diligently worked to enhance the clarity, coherence, and accuracy of the manuscript.

My language services encompassed comprehensive proofreading, grammar and syntax correction, ensuring proper use of academic vocabulary, and maintaining adherence to the conventions of academic writing. The collaboration between myself and the author has resulted in a polished and well-articulated manuscript that is now better suited for academic and professional communication.

I hereby issue this Certificate of Language Services to acknowledge the successful completion of my work on "Primary Adrenal Ewing Sarcoma: A Systematic Review of the Literature".

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any queries.

Sincerely,

Vaibhav Sharma
