Dear Editor,

This is to certify that the manuscript "Atrial fibrillation in patients with gastroesophageal reflux disease: a comprehensive review" by Crina Roman, Stanislas Bruley des Varannes, Lucian Muresan, Alina Picos and Dan L. Dumitrascu has been revised for the accuracy of the English language by our professional translations firm, i.e. by two independent translators, one of them a native English speaker, and I can guarantee that the level of English of this manuscript meets the international standards.
