SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I have reviewed this manuscript for the World Journal of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy in August 2023. It is now submitted to the World Journal of Gastroenterology. My comments and suggestions made in August 2023 were only incompletely addressed (e.g., I have written that the Abstract and the Core Tip should not contain exactly the same text, but this has not been changed). Moreover, this paper might be more appropriate for a journal focusing on case reports.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

the patient apparently has pernicious anemia; what about b12 therapy? Also a review of the type 1 G-NEN without visible lesions under an endoscope would be highly interesting
