

The manuscript has undergone thorough language editing and proofreading by a native English speaker, Öykü Naz Tez, who is affiliated with Bilkent University's Department of Translation and Interpretation, to enhance its overall quality, coherence, and adherence to English language conventions. This rigorous review process aims to ensure that the content is presented in a clear, precise, and grammatically correct manner, facilitating better communication of ideas and information