

The data was from large sample size GWAS, and no informed consent statement is required.