

Biostatistics statement.

Title: Femoral lengthening in young patients. An evidence-based comparison between motorized lengthening nails and external fixation.

This is to confirm that the study was done as a research project between Sheffield children teaching hospitals and Sheffield University.

This study is a narrative analysis due to small number of studies identified following the literature search. No statistical analysis was required for the narrative analysis.

Name: Mohamed Hafez

Contact: mhafez1@sheffield.ac.uk