PMID: 31901449.” This is an important article relevant to the topic and discusses the latest evidences. b. The authors brought the criticism, that Cheng et al., had not provided a PRISMA flow chart. However, Cheng et al., has not claimed their article to be a systematic review for which PRISMA flow chart is required. It is author’s discretion to use it or not in a narrative review. So it should not be a criticism of the article.
