JOURNAL EDITOR-IN-CHIEF (ASSOCIATE EDITOR) COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The author reviewed latest information obtained from randomised clinical trials for approved pharmacotherapy for BRVO associated macular edema. The author revised the manuscript well according to suggestion of the peer reviewers. Although there are several reviews about this subject, each of them may highlight different points in sub-analysis of the randomised clinical trials. Therefore it is suitable to publish this review article to present it to the ophthalmic community. I recommend acceptance of this review manuscript for publication in the WJO.
