Dear Editor,

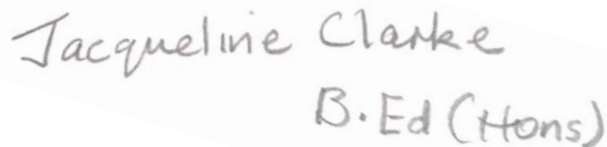

This letter will certify that I have revised the English language of the following manuscript:

Molina P, et al. What is The Optimal Level of Vitamin D in non-Dialysis CKD Population? Re-Evaluating Thresholds for Serum 25(OH)D Concentrations in Relation to Death, Kidney Progression and Hospitalization.

I verify that the language of the manuscript has reached Grade A (priority publishing).

Should you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline Clarke
B.Ed (Hons)
