Title: Differences between British and Japanese perspectives on forensic mental health systems: A preliminary study

I am an employee of Chiba University, receiving fees for serving as a research associate professor. This study was supported by the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare of Japan from a Grant-in-Aid for Scientific Research, entitled “Tagai-koui wo sita seishin-shougai-sha no shakai-fukki-katei no kokusai-hikaku to iryou-keizai-teki-bunseki [International comparison of the process of rehabilitation and medical economic analysis of mentally disordered offenders].”

I declare that we have no other conflict of interests related to this research.
