I am faculty at Yale University School of Medicine. I submitted the review article about e-cigarettes to the World Journal of Cardiology, it is preliminary accepted but will need revisions. I had a suggestion to add figures. There is no commercial purpose in publishing this article. The journal is digital. There is no funding. Would you allow me to use this image <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pmc/articles/PMC6592370/figure/F0001/> to illustrate the pathophysiology of e-cigarettes?
