Manuscript title: Primary Intestinal Lymphangiectasia in an adult patient - Case Report and literature review of a symptomatic chameleon

We would like to submit the manuscript " Primary Intestinal Lymphangiectasia in an adult patient - Case Report and literature review of a symptomatic chameleon" for publication in World Journal of Gastroenterology. All the authors are nonnative speakers of English. Therefore, we invited Mrs. Flamine De-Saint Quentin to modify the final version of this paper. Mrs. De-Saint Quentin is a native speaker, and helped to review the article before submission.
