

Biostatistics statement

Title: Awareness of NASH and treatment guidelines: What are physicians telling us?

Survey results were analyzed to determine if there exists an association between physician specialty and their knowledge and practices regarding NASH diagnosis and management. Chi-square tests of independence using a significance level of .01 were performed by Villanova University graduate holding a Master's degree in Applied Statistics.

Samantha Brown

Samantha Brown

Contact Information

sb.emails@gmail.com

www.linkedin.com/in/sasbrown