SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This is a well written, important review on the diagnosis and treatment of small cell lung cancer (SCLC). As a scientist who is familiar with the pathobiology of the disease but does not treat it, the paper fills in a great deal of essential clinical information. However, the manuscript is quite long, and this reviewer ran out of steam about two-thirds of the way through. Perhaps the authors could streamline several of the more lengthy sections, particularly where specifics are presented in the tables.
