

Hello,

Thank you very much for your time and consideration in reviewing our manuscript and providing us with feedback. Kindly consider our responses as follows:

Specific Comments to Authors: This review provides a significant contribution in the Venous Thromboembolism in COVID-19 patients. The manuscript describes in details all the possible cause, diagnoses tools and implications, being relevant to the current research field. The author provided an unbiased view on the usage of anticoagulants, with literature support for the arguments. A possible limitation of the manuscript is that "gold standard" clinical trials may prone to a more precise usage of anticoagulants in the near future (<https://www.medrxiv.org/content/10.1101/2021.01.04.21249227v1.full>). To the current momment, the manuscript provides up to date review of the topic and could support future investigations. Please just review the usage of , and . there are some missusage.

Response: Thank you for your valuable comments. We agreed to that and we have made necessary changes in the manuscript.

Comment: Please resolve all language issues in the manuscript based on the peer review report. Please be sure to have a native-English speaker edit the manuscript for grammar, sentence structure, word usage, spelling, capitalization, punctuation, format, and general readability, so that the manuscript's language will meet our direct publishing needs.

Response: Thank you for the comment. We revised the manuscript and eliminate the grammatical and typographical errors done by native English speaker.

Authors must revise the manuscript according to the Editorial Office's comments and suggestions, which are listed below:

Editorial office:

Issues raised:

(1) The column should be minireviews.

Response: We have changed it to the minireviews.

(2) The “Author Contributions” section is missing. Please provide the author contributions.

Response: We have added the “Author Contributions” section.

(3) The authors did not provide original pictures. Please provide the original figure documents. Please prepare and arrange the figures using PowerPoint to ensure that all graphs or arrows or text portions can be reprocessed by the editor.

Response: We have provided original pictures in powerpoint file.

(4) Please obtain permission for the use of picture(s). If an author of a submission is re-using a figure or figures published elsewhere, or that is copyrighted, the author must provide documentation that the previous publisher or copyright holder has given permission for the figure to be re-published; and correctly indicating the reference source and copyrights. For example, “Figure 1 Histopathological examination by hematoxylin-eosin staining (200 ×). A: Control group; B: Model group; C: Pioglitazone hydrochloride group; D: Chinese herbal medicine group. Citation: Yang JM, Sun Y, Wang M, Zhang XL, Zhang SJ, Gao YS, Chen L, Wu MY, Zhou L, Zhou YM, Wang Y, Zheng FJ, Li YH.
