

Informed consent statement

This study qualified by a Waiver of Informed Consent as determined by our hospital's IRB as it was a retrospective study that involved no more than minimal risk to the subjects, and could not be reasonably carried out without the waiver, and was not a threat to the rights or welfare of the subjects.