Response to reviewers

Reviewer 1

Specific Comments to Authors: According to me this review article about arteficial intelligence in the field of the kidney transplantation is very interesting and can be accepted for publication.

Response: We thank the reviewer for the comments.

Reviewer 2

Specific Comments to Authors: -Language polishing needed -Absence of tables

Response: Language editing was revised by a native English speaker. We also prepared two tables, the first one showing the classification of different machine learning categories and the second one summarizing the studies presented in the manuscript.
