

Response Letter to Reviewer:

Thank you for your precious revision, comments and suggestions. We reviewed the paper following all the recommendations.

In particular:

- The manuscript was send to a professional English language editing company. Language polishing was performed and all grammatical, syntactical, formatting and other related errors are resolved.
- We have clarified the conclusions by editing inaccurate expressions.
- We have discussed High-Resolution 3D MRI.
- We have clarified the limit of our study lacking of automated methods of selecting regions of interest to increase the consistency of results.

Thank you very much again.

Response letter to Editor:

Thank you for your indications. We modified all the formats as guidelines and you suggestions.

In particular:

- We provide a new language certificate along with the polished manuscript.
- We revise our manuscript to meet the requirements for final acceptance and publication
- We shortened the title as guidelines indicates
- We provided "Core Tip"
- We provided "Highlights section".
- We created PPTs for figures and Tables.

Thank you very much again.