

Institutional review board statement

The first author and principal investigator of the study who submitted the study proposal to the ethics committee of the hospital and who received the ethical clearance is currently not available because of vacation.

However, the official ethical review board statement will be submitted immediately after her return to work.

Best regards,

Dr. Christof Berberich, corresponding author