3	The fixed headings are copied.	[Y]
	The title concisely summarizes the main topic of the study and is not too long (no more than 18 words). Words such as 'exploration', 'research', 4	'analysis', 'observation', and 'investigation' are avoided. The title does	[Y]
	not start with 'The' and does not include any Arabic numbers or uncommon abbreviations.
5	A short running title is provided (no more than 6 words).	[Y]
	The authors' full family (sur)names and full/abbreviated first names are

The 'Supported by' statement describes the source(s) of financial support and includes the corresponding identification number(s) and program ID(s) if available, and contains no spelling errors. The 'Corresponding author' passage provides the corresponding author's full first and family (sur)names, abbreviated title (e.g., MD, PhD), affiliated institute's name and complete postal address (including zip code) and e-mail (written in all lowercase), and contains no spelling errors. The Manuscript Tracking information (i.e., Received, Peer review started, First decision, Revised, Accepted, Article in press, and Published online) are provided along with the corresponding editor and date for each item, and contain no spelling errors. The Abstract section is formatted according to the article-specific style (structured vs unstructured) and word count thresholds, as follows: Commentary, Frontier, Diagnostic Advances, Medical Ethics, Minireview, Review, Therapeutics Advances, and Topic Highlight: Non-structured abstract that is no less than 200 words. Research articles: Structured abstract with subsections for AIM (no more than 20 words); METHODS (no less than 80 words); RESULTS (no less than 120 words); and CONCLUSION (no more than 26 words). The 'Key words' list provides 5-10 keywords that reflect the main content of the study. The first letter of each keyword is capitalized, and each keyword is separated by a semicolon. The "citation" contains authors' names and manuscript title. The name of the first author should be typed with the first letter capitalized, followed by their abbreviated first and middle initials. 	Park SM. Pre-existing diabetes mellitus increases the risk of gastric cancer: A meta-analysis. World J Gastroenterol 2019; In press
	The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the study
14	that outlines the most innovative and important arguments and core	[Y] contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract readers.
	The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant background information for the study. Only the most relevant and current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All technical terms and/or abbreviations are explained and/or defined, with the full name of 15	abbreviations given upon first appearance in the text and the	[N] abbreviation presented in parentheses [i.e., "computed tomography (CT)"]. First-person pronouns (e.g., 'I', 'we') are used appropriately to clearly indicate the work performed by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the current study, the information is presented carefully.
	The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately
16	describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data presented in	[N]
	the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the study.
	The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either the text, a table 17	or figure (i.e., chart, diagram, graph or image), but is not repeated	[N] among each. Information presented in the tables and figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences. Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.
	Statistical symbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as ^a P
18	< 0.05 , ${}^{\rm b}P < 0.01$ ($P > 0.05$ usually does not need to be denoted). If there	[N]
	are other series of P values, ^{c}P < 0.05 and ^{d}P < 0.01 are used, and a third series of P values is expressed as $^{\rm e}P$ < 0.05 and $^{\rm f}P$ < 0.01. Statistical data is expressed as mean ± SD or mean ± SE.

	The 'DISCUSSION' section (1) describes the main purpose and hypothesis of the study; (2) summarizes the most important results; (3) illustrates and explains the results (but does not simply repeat the data)
19	and draws conclusions or inferences based on the results; (4) points out	[NI]
19	the limitations of the study and their impact on the results, as well as	[N] proposes further advice on future research topic(s) or direction(s); and
	(5) describes the theoretical significance and practical value of the findings.
	The 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any individuals or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing instrumentation, equipment or experimental materials, and/or 20	assistance in experimental work), non-technical services (i.e., useful	[N] inspiration, suggestions, guidance, or review), and/or any other auxiliary work.
	The 'ARTICLE HIGHLIGHTS' section provides comments for original
21	articles in accordance with the specified format.	[N]
	The 'REFERENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver style.
	This style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the order of the first appearance of a source in the text. For citations where the author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript number should be placed following the name (i.e , "Pang et al "). For citations where no author is indicated, a superscript number should be placed at the end of the 22	sentence. Respective examples are: "Ma ^[1] reported", "Pan et al ^[2-5]	[Y] indicated"; "PCR has a high sensitivity ^[6,9] ." No superscript numbers are used when the reference number is described in the text; for example, "The experimental method used has been described in reference [8]." The style of reference citations in tables is the same as that in the text (e.g., Pan et $al^{[2-5]}$, please see reference [8]).

	Journal references have been verified to ensure that there are no duplicate references and that the PMID numbers are correct. For references not yet included in PubMed: the name of Chinese journals is 23	spelled out using Chinese Pinyin, with the first letter of each word	[Y]
23	capitalized (e.g., Shijie Huaren Xiaohua Zazhi); the name of journals in	[1]
	other languages are listed according to indexing information retrieved from Google. Book references are presented with all the information relevant to the electronic version.
	The number of cited references is appropriate for the article type, as follows:
24	Commentary: no less than 50;	D/I
24	Review: no less than 100;	[Y]
	Article: no less than 30/26;
	Case Report and Letter to the Editor: no less than 1.
	The ethics-related statements are provided in accordance with the 25	manuscript type (e.g., Manuscript NoInstitutional review board	[N] statement, Manuscript NoAnimal care and use statement, etc.).
26	The names of the peer reviewers and the scientific editor are present at
26	the end of the paper (e.g., P-Reviewer: Hugot D S-Editor: Wang JL).	[Y]
	The order and numerical labeling of tables and figures is consistent with their appearance and presentation in the text. Symbols in tables ($e.g.$, +, -, \times , \div , $*$) correctly correspond to the definitions in the footnotes. Only one
0.7	legend is provided for each multi-panel figure consisting of color
27	graphs, black and white graphs, or line graphs that depicts data of the	[N] same theme. For example: Figure 1 Pathological changes in atrophic gastritis tissue before and after treatment. A:; B:; C:; D:; E:;
