SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In the abstract - method chapter I will like to have the volume of the study. This manuscript is interesting us a manuscript which determinate the new approach in oncology and it is personalised therapy. This tipe of therapy is good because it does not expose patients to unnecesery damage from ineffective chemotherapy. Congretulation

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The proposed work is very interesting. In fact, it directs towards new and personalized oncological therapies, which will be able to avoid other useless therapies with side effects. All paragraphs are relevant to the topic; are clearly developed and described. The discussion is suitably broad. Sufficient and clear tables and figures. Updated bibliography.
