I am aware that the practice of medicine and surgery is not an exact science, and I acknowledge that no guarantees have been made to me concerning the results of the proposed treatment(s) or procedure(s).

Further I am aware that there are possible risks, such as loss of blood, infection or pain that may accompany any surgical, diagnostic or therapeutic procedure. The following additional risks were explained to me:

- Bleeding
- Perforation (tear in esophagus, stomach or bowel wall)
- Sepsis (infection)
- Pneumonia
- Surgery/transfusion for complications
- Pancreatitis (inflammation of the pancreas)
- Chest pain
- Missed lesion

If procedural sedation will be used during this procedure, I understand that this sedation has risks. My physician has discussed the use of procedural sedation. The risks include but are not limited to slower breathing and low blood pressure that may require treatment.

I understand that a potential risk or complication of the procedure is the loss of blood. I understand that I may require blood products during the procedure or in the post-procedure period. If I refuse blood products, I will complete a separate release for blood-free treatment form.

I understand that one or more healthcare industry professionals (technical representatives for medical equipment and device companies) or observers may be present during this procedure for advisory or observational purposes only.

The hospital may photograph, videotape, or record my procedure/surgery for educational, research, quality and other healthcare operations purposes. Any information used for these purposes will not identify me.

I understand that blood or other samples removed during this procedure may later be disposed of by Brigham and Women's Hospital/Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital. These materials also may be used by Brigham and Women's Hospital/Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital, its partners, or affiliates for research, education and other activities that support Brigham and Women's Hospital/Brigham and Women's Faulkner Hospital's mission.
