

Signed Informed Consent Form(s) or Document(s)

The SEER database is a public-use database. After submitting a request to the SEER database project and obtaining permission, data freely downloaded from the SEER database did not require patients' informed consent or institutional approval.