

Statement

All retrospective clinical studies conducted in this hospital, if they do not affect the patient's diagnosis and treatment process, only obtain the clinical data and clinical information after the patient's treatment, and keep the patient's personal information confidential, in principle, no additional ethics committee review will be required!

The Fourth Affiliated Hospital of China Medical University Ethics Committee