	The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the 14	study that outlines the most innovative and important arguments	[Y]
17	and core contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract readers.
	The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant background information for the study. Only the most relevant and current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All technical terms and/or abbreviations are explained and/or defined, with the full name of abbreviations given upon first appearance in 15	the text and the abbreviation presented in parentheses [i.e.,	[Y]
	"computed tomography (CT)"]. First-person pronouns (e.g., 'I',
	'we') are used appropriately to clearly indicate the work performed by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the current study, the information is presented carefully.
	The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data 16	presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the	[Y] study.
17	The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either the text, a table or figure ( i.e. , chart, diagram, graph or image), but is	[Y] not repeated among each. Information presented in the tables and figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences.
	Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear.

Statistical symbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as *P < 0.05, *P < 0.01 (P > 0.05 usually does not need to be denoted).
