SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear Authors, I have thoroughly reviewed your manuscript titled "Keystone Flap Technique for Defect Coverage in Cervical Necrotizing Fasciitis: A Case Series." Your exploration of utilizing the keystone flap for defect coverage in cervical necrotizing fasciitis (CNF) is both clinically relevant and commendable. The detailed presentation of two cases, each with distinct anatomical locations of CNF, provides a comprehensive understanding of the application of the keystone flap in different clinical scenarios. I also want to commend you on the exceptional quality and relevance of the photos and figures you included as a part of the case presentations.
