

Client: Dr. Zheng-Qiang Yang

Manuscript: ESPS Manuscript NO: 10672

Journal: World Journal of Gastroenterology

Formatting Summary and Additional Instructions

Prepared: June 10, 2014

Congratulations—you're one step closer to submission!

This report summarizes the work that has been done to bring your manuscript into compliance with your targeted journal's formatting requirements, and it describes any further changes that you will need to make before submitting your manuscript to your specified journal. Please review this document and the marginal comments in your manuscript carefully. If you have any questions, please contact us at support@aje.com.

Title Page

Please complete your title page according to our comments in the manuscript prior to submission.

Abstract

The journal you chose limits the abstract to no LESS than 200 words. Currently, your abstract contains 124 words. Please INCREASE the word count before submission to the journal.

The journal you chose limits the core tip to 100 words or less. Currently, your core tip contains 137 words. Please reduce the word count before submission to the journal.

Citations and References

Your citations and reference list were corrected for spelling, author lists, journal abbreviations, and format according to the journal's specified style.

Figures and Figure Legends

Per the journal guidelines, the figure legends have been placed on a separate page at the end of the manuscript.

Submission

Please submit your manuscript online at <http://www.wjgnet.com/esps/>.