ESPS Manuscript NO: 1379
Title: PARENTAL TRANSMISSION OF TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS AND ITS INFLUENCE IN THE OFFSPRING IN A HIGHLY ENDOGAMOUS POPULATION
Author Name: Abdulbari Bener
Subject: Reply to reviewers and English language editing by native- English experts.

Dear Ms. Gou,
Good Morning and Greetings from Qatar,

Thank you very much for your both emails.

This is a brief note to inform you that I have downloaded copy of amended version of manuscript and Copyright Form regarding my manuscript which is entitled " PARENTAL TRANSMISSION OF TYPE 2 DIABETES MELLITUS AND ITS INFLUENCE IN THE OFFSPRING IN A HIGHLY ENDOGAMOUS POPULATION" for publication in the "World Journal of Diabetes"

Meanwhile, I do believe that the language of my manuscript has reached or exceeded Grade A and would like to sign a guarantee. I am not willing that my manuscript to be edited by the English language editing companies, since my manuscript has been reviewed /edited by the Native English Language expert.

Looking forward to hearing from you. I appreciate your acknowledgement of receipt of this email at an early date. Thanking you in anticipation.

Kindest regards
