

Rome, 26 March 2013

I hereby certify that the article entitled "Cytoreductive surgery after recurrent epithelial ovarian cancer and at other timepoints" by Paolo Sammartino accepted for publication by the World Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology, ESPS manuscript n. 1471, was translated by me from Italian into English. As a mother tongue English medical translator and language revisor I have more than 30 years experience in translating scientific texts from Italian into English. Biomedical papers translated or revised by me have been published in the most prestigious international scientific journals.
