

Disclosure Statement

I have not entered into any financial arrangement for the above clinical case study, whereby the value of compensation paid to me could affect the outcome of the study.

I do not hold a significant equity interest at all. A significant equity interest is defined as: any ownership interest, stock options, or other financial interest whose value cannot be readily determined through reference to public prices (generally, interests in a nonpublicly traded corporation).

I do not have any proprietary interest in the listed product. A proprietary interest in the product is defined as property or other financial interest including, but not limited to a patent, trademark, copyright or licensing agreement.

Neither I or my affiliated institution(s) have or will receive any significant payments of other sorts from sponsoring.
