

Response to reviewer 01800499

Dear colleague,

Thank you for your comments. In response to your comments, we agree that not all centers offer liver transplantation for HIV positive patients but it is important that outcomes in this patient group is known by the whole of the liver transplant community. I have included a sentence in the text proposing why the incidence of ACR is higher in HIV-HCV patients.