

MEDICAL SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE
METROPOLITAN HEALTH SERVICE SOUTH EAST.

The committee has received the request from Enrique Norero Muñoz and Marco Ceroni Villanelo, to do retrospective study, which was approved for publication in the World Journal of Hepatology:

TOTAL ESOPHAGOGASTRECTOMY PLUS EXTENDED LYMPHADENECTOMY WITH TRANSVERSE COLON INTERPOSITION. A TREATMENT FOR EXTENSIVE ESOPHAGOGASTRIC JUNCTION CANCER.

Authors: Marco Ceroni, Enrique Norero, Juan Pablo Henríquez, Eduardo Viñuela, Eduardo Briceño, Cristián Martínez, Gloria Aguayo, Fernando Araos, Paulina Gonzalez, Alfonzo Díaz, Mario Caracci.

This study was previously approved for implementation with the following requirements:

The study was performed in Sotero del Rio Hospital, with the aim of obtaining information from medical records, provide information to improve the quality of patient care and do publications.

The committee approved the request for use information contained in medical records in hospital grounds and comply with obligation under the letter of intent submitted by the researchers and endorsed by the head of service. Respecting confidentiality and not mentioned in relation to not do contact with patients or their families, as this would require informed consent.

We ask:

- 1) With this act obtained from the hospital management, authorization for this study.
- 2) Keep all documentation in your possession at least up to 3 years closed the studio.
- 3) Report at least once a year of progress, as any publication or presentation at conferences generated.
- 4) The approval is valid for 1 year.

Dr. Patricio Michaud Chacón.
President
Medical assessment committee scientist,

