World Journal of Gastroenterology

Dear Professor Olmo,

Please find attached the revised version of our invited review manuscript entitled „Proteoglycans in liver cancer” by Baghy et al. (Manuscript No.: 20021) for consideration for publication in World Journal of Gastroenterology.

The Editor and the Reviewer’s comments were highly constructive and we feel that the review in the revised form is considerably improved. We have made all the recommended modifications. Below is a point-to-point response to the Editor and the Reviewer’s critique.

Answers:

To the Reviewer:

- The orthography has been checked and corrected as the manuscript has been sent to Filipodia publishing for language editing.
- There is no part missing in the revised manuscript.

To the Editor:

- A signed copy of conflict-of-interest statement is provided along with the manuscript
- An audio core tip is also submitted
- The blank spaces between reference number and the before words are removed.
- Separate images in .tiff files, and a .ppt file containing all pictures in editable forms are provided.

Best regards,

Ilona Kovalszky, MD, PhD, DSc.
