To whole it may concern,

The is to verify that I have read the manuscript by Peng et al “Noncoding RNAs and pancreatic cancer” in detail and made necessary language revisions. I am a scientist who have written more than 20 peer reviewed academic papers myself that all appeared in scientific journals in English. I believe this manuscript by Peng et al meets the standard of English language with clarity and accuracy.

Yours truly,

Wanling Yang, Ph.D.,
