EDITING CERTIFICATE

This is to acknowledge that the article entitled “Immune-inflammatory processes in the pathogenesis of atherosclerosis: Focus on the role of pericyte-like cells as the second line of immune defence in the arterial intima” had been submitted to Eureka Science for addressing the language inconsistencies existing in the document.

The document was duly subjected to a thorough assessment of any sort of typographical and grammatical errors, and is now in a refined form, ready for submission for publication as and when desired.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Hasina Habib", written over a series of horizontal lines.
