Dear Ze-Mao Gong,

Please find enclosed our revised manuscript (20881) entitled "Yersinia type III effectors perturb host innate immune responses" by Khavong Pha and Lorena Navarro. We are resubmitting our paper for publication in The World Journal of Biological Chemistry as a review paper. We have addressed all of the editor's suggestions. At this time the reviewers did not have any concerns.

We want to thank you and each of the reviewers for their thoughtful comments. If we can clarify additional points please let us know.

With best regards,

Lorena Navarro
