Conflict-of-interest statement

Dear Editor,

The authors declare no conflict of interests in the manuscript titled:

Burn injury induces histopathological changes and cell proliferation in liver of rats

Regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive ink, reading "Flavia de Oliveira". The name is written in a fluid, flowing script. The "F" in "Flavia" is larger and more prominent than the other letters. The "d" in "de" and the "o" in "Oliveira" also have distinct, elegant loops.
