Dear reviewers,

First of all, thanks for your comments which really important to me. About interobserver agreement, it's really important to be done to improve our results is available. This is also what we are doing now in further multi-center study in China. Even though we didn't do interobserver agreement in this paper, it was still a prospective double-blinded study, and we think it could give us confidence to do further work as a preliminary study.

Thanks for your attention.

Dr. Luo jun
