

Condensing osteitis of the clavicle in children

Statement of Informed Consent: Patients were not required to give informed consent to the study because the analysis used anonymous clinical data that were obtained after each patient agreed to treatment by written consent.