

Human Embryonic Stem Cell Therapy

We hereby place on record that the Institutional Ethics Committee (IEC) of Nutech Mediworld has approved the administration of Human embryonic stem cell therapy to patients suffering from Autism Spectrum Disorder. Henceforth, this therapy will be available to patients suffering from Autism Spectrum Disorder in addition to patients of other incurable and/or terminal diseases already being offered this treatment.

Dr. Bhupinder Singh (Member, IEC)

Date: 13/03/2006

Mrs. Jharna Dasgupta (Member, IEC)

Date: 13/03/2006