

Dear Editor,

Our manuscript (No: 26906), entitled “Minimally invasive management of anastomotic leaks in colorectal surgery” has been submitted previously to the World Journal of Gastrointestinal Surgery.

We think that we have no need a certificate of English editing by an editing service company; because two of our authors (HY and CA) are native English speaker.

If it is appropriate for you, please assess the manuscript with existing form.

Best regards,
