

Institutional review board statement: In this study we have no institutional review board statement, but, as stated in the-mail to the Editor prior to submission, as well as in the Methods, “To maintain patient confidentiality, the spread sheets submitted to the principal investigator did not include any data that would have allowed identification of patients or caregivers” .