

Institutional review board statement: The governance, maintenance and management principles of the Biobank had been approved by the National Scientific Research Ethics Committee (ETT TUKEB). Clinical data guidelines and regulations of the local Ethics Committee and Helsinki Declaration in 1975 were followed during collection and use of DNA samples. At blood collection patients gave their informed consent for the future use of their anonymized DNA.