

Answers:

- 1.Revision of English has been performed as documented by the certificate attached to the article.
- 2.Review of the pertinent literature as well as a brief description of the most interesting cases regarding the topic can be found in the first part of the discussion as well as in the table containing a detailed citation of all the studies published.
- 3.This is a case of a supra-subtentorial hematoma without spinal spreading. Moreover we did not perform surgical evacuation of the collection. Consequently we don't hold an histological exam.